

I BELIEVE IN THE RESURRECTION - HERE'S WHY

In the Apostles' Creed we confess: I believe in Jesus Christ...who on the third day rose from the dead. Therein lies the keystone of the Gospel. Jesus, the son of God, died, was buried, and rose from the grave. The resurrection of Jesus Christ. It's what we celebrate, not only at Easter, but every Lord's Day. I think it is helpful to pause to consider the reasonableness of this assertion; because the resurrection of Jesus is to be believed by faith, to be sure, but that faith is also built upon reasonable conclusions to give confidence to that faith.

There are some who think that faith is what happens when we lack evidence, as if they were opposed to each other. But that isn't what Jesus teaches Thomas who memorably struggles to embrace the truth of the resurrection. In John 20, Jesus told Thomas, "put your finger here, and see my hands; and put out your hand, and place it in my side." In others words, see and touch for yourself, Thomas; here is the evidence. But then comes the admonition, "do not disbelieve," Jesus said, "but believe." Jesus instructs Thomas to exercise faith in response to the evidence. Faith is not just the response to the absence of evidence, but the souls clinging to what is eminently true because of the truthful claim.

One might respond wisely that the book of Hebrews says, "faith is the conviction of things not seen." Does that take evidence out of the equation? Not necessarily. The famous chapter on faith in Hebrews 11 is talking about those who believed and exercised faith through obedience, not on the basis of blindness, but on the basis of God's promise revealed through His Word. Therefore, the only kind of faith that makes sense, is faith that is founded upon the revelation of Scripture. So, it makes sense to turn there as we consider the reasonableness of faith in Jesus' resurrection.

The New Testament provides sufficient historical evidence to support the belief in the resurrection of Jesus. These documents were, besides being authored by human hands through the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, recorded by eyewitnesses and based upon direct eyewitness accounts. How do they help us? Consider a few:

- Jesus' Tomb was empty (Mk 16:6). Among all the potential reasons for the vacant tomb (stolen body, moved body, robbed body, Jesus never really died, etc) resurrection is actually the most sensible.
- Jesus was seen by diverse body of eye-witnesses (Mt 28:1-10; Lk 24:13-35; 1 Cor 15:5-8) who all had the same testimony concerning the resurrection.
- The disciples, who were given over to despair on Friday, were dramatically transformed by the power of the resurrected Christ. Peter is a wonderful example. Contrast his fear in John 18, and his boldness in Acts 2.
- The disciples immediately began to meet on the first day of the week, Sunday, in commemoration of Jesus' resurrection (In 20:26; Acts 20:7; 1 Cor 16:2) which John calls the Lord's Day (Rev 1:10).
- The existence of the Church, which is founded upon the confession of Jesus as Lord, grew through the Apostle's proclamation of the Gospel, which included the resurrection (Acts 2:24-32; 3:15; 4:2).

Along with the Apostle Paul and all the Church, let us hold fast the confession, "but in fact Christ has been raised from the dead!" (1 Cor 15:20). He is risen - let us believe it with all our heart, soul, mind, and strength! I look forward to worshipping the resurrected Christ with you all this Easter, and every Lord's Day. Because - He is risen indeed!

NEW WEBSITE...
Coming soon!

We are really excited about, and busy at work in the office on a new and improved website. This will, prayerfully, be a blessing to all of you here, and to everyone out there trying to check us out. It will contain much more information and will be continually updated with classes, ministry updates, sermons, etc.

While we are working on building the new website the old one will remain up and running. Our domain name will remain the same, so the switch should be easy when it happens.

Our launch date is Easter Sunday!

Not all things will be ready at that point, but prayerfully enough will be that we can get it launched, and then continue to build upon it as other things start becoming available and fall into place.

You may notice a photographer during some services and meetings coming up. Her name is Missy Myers, and she will be taking photos for the new site. Those of you who were helping with VBS may recognize her from last year, as she was there taking pictures too. Please just continue to worship and participate in your classes/meetings as if she is not there so her shots look as natural as possible.

OPPORTUNITIES

Thank you so much to everyone who attended, sponsored, volunteered, prayed, and donated to YouthHope's Game Changer Banquet on March 8th! We heard several amazing testimonies, saw an awesome dance, and had an incredible turnout! Thank you!

Over the past 30 years, I have watched and participated in game changing moments at YouthHope. These life changing moments have occurred in kids and teens, as well as volunteers, camp counselors, staff members, and contributors at our youth centers and Camp Summit.

God is in the business of changing lives, and the proof can be seen at YouthHope! Our message always is: God loves you, there is hope in any circumstance, and He will bring healing if you trust in Him!

I am so thankful for your help and support to reach hundreds of kids and teens each week who need to know the true source of hope and healing - Jesus Christ!
